

Table art by MA+KE lab - Endless Ocean photography series A river has no boundaries

The table designs pay homage to the vision of a true photo-conceptual artist, László Moholy Nagy, by using different mediums, such as mixing photography, light and materials in a way that elevates applied art to fine art in a contemporary way.

These designs feature 12 collage-type art pieces, that integrate mediums to capture the world from different perspectives. The prints are made by using use a mix of illustration, photography, light effects, reflections and choice of material, such as aluminium.

These portraits go beyond being simple photographs, as they embody the essence of the profound connections formed between the subjects and the photographer. They represent a blend of artistry and humanity, encapsulating both external beauty and the intangible qualities that made these individuals captivating. Each portrait tells a visual story, offering insight into the transformative experiences shared between diverse people united by their passion for fashion and creativity.

It is like the river itself, always flowing but also different, gathering memories and images throughout the years.

Extraordinary people from Endless Ocean - Karl Lagerfeld, Vivienne Westwood, Iris van Herpen, Yohji Yamamoto, Walter van Bierendonck.

MA+KE lab is an artistic studio, infusing art and design. Behind MA+KE lab's design, there are three creative minds and many inspiring friends for creative collaborations - master of graphic arts, Martin Tõnts; Kevin Pineda, product designer and photographer; Nele Kont, material technology specialist. We at MA+KE lab believe things gone are worth remembering. A better knowledge of the past can also help us understand the choices we face as humanity face today.
